

Charlie Kirk – A Prophetic Event

AT's Snacks-- September 14, 2025

Andy Taylor /Trinity Fellowship - Sayre, Oklahoma

Monday:

Concerning Charlie Kirk's assassination, Matthew 5:9 says, "Blessed are the peacemakers, for they shall be called sons of God". With this political stuff that has had us so divided, we have an opportunity here, as kingdom people, to bring the gap closer together, and we need to think about and pray about what that means for us in this situation.

If kingdom people don't stand up, and stand up now, the gap just gets wider and wider and the hatred becomes deeper and deeper.

Do you know who God talks to the most? The ones who listen. The most important thing we should be doing is listening, especially at a juncture like this, just to listen. This is an extremely prophetic word.

What happened with Charlie Kirk is kind of kin to the incident that happened with Demar Hamlin at a Monday night NFL game a couple of years ago. That was a prophetic event in how the Lord got the whole world focused on praying for him, even those who never prayed before. So, God used that.

If you're watching and listening this morning, if you see this as something that's political, I'm saying shame on you. I don't want to see any political posts on the Trinity Fellowship page or Facebook. My goal here, again, is to be a peacemaker in this thing.

Please don't get into some kind of dumb on-line argument that you can't win. That's the stupidest thing you can do. And if you do that, I love you, but I will not back you up. We need to respond to stuff in a kingdom way. We have an opportunity right here to show the world what the kingdom is really all about.

Tuesday:

We don't have to get out there and get in everybody's face. That's a dumb way to try to do things. But when the opportunity arises, the Bible encourages us to be instant, in season and out.

The kingdom is coming at a rate like I've never seen it ever come before, but so are the forces of darkness and the ugliness that's happening in the world right now.

Just like Demar Hamlin's situation, Charlie has lit a fire, a good fire. I'm not talking politically, I'm talking about a kingdom fire.

When the truth came out about Charlie, I can't remember any time in my life that I've been so hurt but so angry at the same time. And I had to get that anger in check pretty quickly. If you're not thinking from a kingdom perspective, you need to bring it in line, because nothing can be separated from the Kingdom of God. Everything is kingdom.

These are exciting times, and the stakes are high, and there's lots of negativity and darkness out there at a rate I've never seen before. Deception is at an all time high, and we haven't seen anything yet.

One of the signs of the end times is that there are people out there who think that if someone disagrees with you, politically, you should kill them. That's unbelievable! And it's so far from anything kingdom. It's the kingdom of darkness.

Wednesday:

John the Baptist came saying this, "Repent". And what he was saying is, change your mind. Think differently, "For the Kingdom of Heaven is at hand". It's available for us now.

There's raging lunatics on both sides of this, on both sides of the political spectrum. It's demonic in nature and set to divide people. Ephesians 6:12 says, "For we don't wrestle against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this age, against spiritual hosts of wickedness in the heavenly places".

I really had no intentions, 3-4 weeks ago, to teach on spiritual warfare and I felt really the inclination from the Lord to do so. If you were here and paying attention, all that stuff figures in right now. If you want to do some warfare, you love. You don't retaliate.

The things of the Kingdom of God, and all this stuff that you've been getting poured into you all along really needs to come to the surface. You need to be in situations. The people are not your enemy. We're not enemies of the right or the left.

We are present day representatives of the sons of Issachar, who knew how to read the times in their generation. If you are engaging in that relationship with the Lord, giving him time, listening to Him and interacting with Him, you're operating at a greater level of wisdom than you have ever operated in before, and that can expand and grow. If you will do that, right now is a time where it really needs to happen.

We have a huge opportunity before us now, and the great question is, what will the church do with that? How will kingdom people react?

Thursday:

This was not a political assassination, it was a spiritual assassination of the highest order. Charlie was a kingdom man who moved in the political arena, which God called him to.

The enemy has issued an order to take out kingdom people, especially leaders, by whatever means possible and to close the mouths of truth tellers. I would appreciate you praying for me and for every one of us concerning this.

There are assignments by the enemy, to shut you up and to take you out by whatever means possible. Charlie Kirk is proof of that. This time is serious, for me as well as for you.

Watch little compromises. The Bible talks about the little foxes that can spoil the vine. Try not to deviate even one degree from what we know to be right.

The Lord wants to use you in the process of being an agent of change for the Kingdom of God. Are you the kingdom person in this picture? If you have to look around, maybe you're not quite ready for that.

The enemy is getting trickier and more deceptive. We're entering a time where you're not going to be able to tell what's right, what's wrong, what's true and what's not true. You are living in a time where the only gauge for truth is you, and your relationship with the Lord.

Friday:

The Lord showed me that this is a literal turning point. Something happened in the spirit realm. Kingdom activity will escalate like never before, but demonic activity will also be at its greatest point in our lifetime. So, literally, everything you do and say is extremely important.

I want you to receive this as a word for you. Philippians 1:27 says, “Only let your conduct be worthy of the gospel of Christ, so that whether I come and see you or am absent, I may hear of your affairs, that you stand fast in one spirit, with one mind, striving together for the faith of the gospel”. Not being terrified by your adversaries.

We need to not react in situations, but stop, listen and move, based on what God leads us to do.

Some things to really think about:

- Don't let the media make your mind up for you.
- Don't get sucked into an argument that nobody can win.
- Don't let political affiliation be more important than your relationships.
- If you can't say anything positive, just keep quiet. If you're falling for that, that's exactly what the enemy wants you to do. It's subtle, but a very deceiving trick of the enemy, to keep dividing us. So, stop taking the bait.
- If I can seem happy or rejoice when someone who I don't agree with dies, especially by the hands of an assassin, then something is really, really wrong with my heart. If you are having those feelings, you need to be doing something about them now.

Love your neighbor, even the ones who disagree with you, or you don't agree with. Jesus said it this way, “Pray for your enemies, who despitefully use you and wrong you. Bless those who persecute you”. As kingdom people, we should work to make the relationship better. If you do that and it doesn't work, you have to out-love them. No retaliation.

People are desperately looking for truth. You have the truth as a kingdom person, and you should be ready to give an account of your faith. There's never been a time in my life where people are so ready to hear the good news. And the question is, are you ready to tell the good news?

Saturday:

The harvest right now is more ripe than it's ever been in history. We are to pray that the Lord of the harvest send forth the laborers. That is you!

Do you know what I am? I'm just a kingdom person trying to walk out, as best I can, this life that God has put before me, and to try to be obedient to Him at every juncture. It hasn't been perfect, but it's been sincere.

Please remember what we have talked about before. Watch your words. Pay attention to your words. By your words you're justified, and by your words you're condemned. You need to keep your confession lined up with what you pray. When speaking, speak positively.

It's a year of transition. There's a transition taking place now, like no transition in world history.

I'm not here to be a good preacher, not to be a great communicator, but to tell you what it is that God is saying to you, right now, and not for somewhere down the line.

Pay attention to your words in this year of transition. Right now we have the greatest opportunity we've ever had to show the world what real, true, genuine, authentic love looks like.
